Let's work together to make Edmonton a safer city

REACH is Edmonton's Council for Safe Communities.

We are a backbone, community-based organization working to mobilize and coordinate organizations, community groups and Edmontonians to find innovative solutions to prevention and community safety.

REACH has collective impact. We foster the social change needed to address the complex issues around crime prevention and community safety.

Vision

A city in which every Edmontonian contributes to a community where everyone is safe and feels safe.

Mission

To inspire citizen engagement and coordinated agency action to strengthen and sustain community safety in Edmonton.

Why become a member?

- To receive discounts on training opportunities
- To receive special invitations to functions and events
- To gain access to prevention and community safety information

Memberships are valid for one year. You can apply by sending in the attached application form or online at www.reachedmonton.ca

Why become a volunteer?

- To network and engage in dialogue around issues of prevention and community safety
- To gain transferable skills and valuable experience
- To gain access to REACH training opportunities

Volunteers will receive a FREE REACH membership upon completing 40 hours of volunteer work.

Successful applicants will be required to provide REACH with a criminal record check.

You can apply by sending in the attached application form or online at www.reachedmonton.ca
